Watered Down History

- The King James bible translation was written at a 12th-Grade reading level. Bill Combs writes a nice article about how it should have embarrassed the evil king that an 11-page disclaimer was written by the translators that were forced to work with unethical rules of translation.
- The New King James Bible was further dumbed down to a 7th-Grade reading level.
- I prefer to study a Chronological Bible and I would love to host a bible study if you're interested to keep each other accountable. The history has been watered down and obfuscated over the millennia by bygone government fact-checkers.³⁻⁶ I think the main way history gets lost is by putting the books out of order. The books in the bible are not in chronological order so, if anyone were reading it, generations might miss the absolutely most crucial piece of world history – hundreds of prophecies have come true.

A screenshot of a blog post titled "VA Disability Evaluations: One Veteran to Another" by Daniel M. Williams, M.D., D.A., dated October 5, 2025. The article includes a video player for a podcast episode and a photo of Dr. Williams in military uniform. The text discusses the challenges veterans face with VA disability evaluations and introduces a one-page checklist tracker. The article also includes a bio for Dr. Williams, a former Major in the Texas Army National Guard, and a statement about his work with veterans.

Physical and mental ailments follow veterans throughout their lives. Some things that start out relatively small turn out to be disabling as we age. Eventually the struggle causes a veteran to apply for benefits when they really, really need it. In that condition, it is difficult to stay organized when you're not sleeping enough to have memory issues caused by chronic high levels of cortisol. Well, I've created a one-page VA checklist tracker for you to keep up with the steps of the VA application process for disability compensation. Download and share with the world the VA Disability Tracker (below). This tracker is used to train new psychiatrists to do VA Disability Evaluations like an efficiency expert (see video below).

Hello, I'm Dr. Daniel Williams, former Major in the Texas Army National Guard. I served as 36th Infantry Division Psychiatrist, Behavioral Health Officer and Veterinary Food Inspector Sergeant in my 16-year career.

I've been doing veteran disability evaluations and wanted to discuss my lessons learned healing veterans and getting the disability compensation right.

Ancient Healing Practices from Vietnam

- For several thousand years, Vietnamese Traditional Medicine has evolved under the shadows of Chinese Traditional Medicine, culture, and rule.
- Thuoc Nam (Southern Medicine)
- Thuoc Bac (Northern Medicine)
- Everything revolved around energy Qi (Digestive, Immune, Mental state), they are all related to the original Source or Essence and Food Qi.

Modern “Religious Problems”

- The field of psychiatry contains clinical evaluations of people at all stages of life, including times of deep excitement or deep sorrow related to religion. Divorce, followed by trauma within the religion itself, are pretty typical. They come to our offices in tears of sadness and joy that are profound. They look to us for guidance even if we’re not familiar with their religion. Please be patient with a psychiatrist from a different religion from you. In general, we are trained to diagnose that a religious or spiritual problem is occurring and to refer you to the proper religious or spiritual leader. Give them a chance to impress you with their professionalism. If they don’t, book a Mindshift Assessment with me immediately. I know what it’s like to see the shame-control system behind the curtains of churches. It is possible to heal-in-place. Let me help you.

The Unspoken Religion (at Harvard)

I once sponsored a Satanist for a period of several months. We went to see Megadeth at the House of Blues in Myrtle Beach, SC December 17, 1999. From the upper balcony we could see inside the dressing room above the stage where an upside down cross hung on the wall. My friend got so excited he was ecstatic. He gave me a lot of tips and tricks that they do, that he wasn't supposed to tell me. He eventually parted ways as grateful friends because of all the Christian prayer he didn't want to be a part of, but not before he saw it working.

I've been a psychiatrist for Satanists before and they know every bit of quantum communication science that I teach. My hope is that I can help my Southern Baptist friends pray for their body's trauma residue to be released, as distinct from spiritual possession.
